

TANGHALANG PAMBATA 2016 CONTEST RULES

PhilFest's "Tanghalang Pambata 2016" is open to any Filipino and Filipino-American between 5 and 15 years old who wants to show any talent of his or her choice. The competition will be held on Sunday, April 3, 2016 at 1:00 PM at the Philippine Village's Sinagtala Theater at 14301 Nine Eagles Drive, Tampa, Florida 33626.

Contestant must not have won first prize in any previous PhilFest "Tanghalang Pambata" competition.

Each contestant must provide his/her own props, musical instrument or music accompaniment (preferably on a CD). Please label music properly with the contestant's name and the track number to be played during performance. This should be submitted to the competition coordinator at the Sinagtala Theater backstage one hour before competition time. Not submitting on time may disqualify the contestant.

Contestants are allowed to use Tagalog, English or Taglish as language during performance.

Contestants will be judged according to the following criteria:

Delivery (25%) | Proficiency in the Chosen Talent (25%) | Originality (25%) \ Audience Impact (25%) for a total of 100%. The decision of the panel of judges is final.

Cash and other valuable prizes will be awarded to the winners and runner-ups:

First Prize: $500 | Second prize: $300 | Third Prize: $200

Contestants will NOT be provided with complimentary passes or special privileges to the festival.

All interested contestants MUST complete the Contest Application Form in order to be eligible for the competition. This may be submitted online at www.pcfitampa.org/tanghalang-pambata-2015 or sent by mail to:
